WELCOME

Live performance has a remarkable way of bringing people together. It invites us to laugh, reflect, celebrate, and experience something meaningful alongside our neighbours, friends, and family. For generations, Horizon Stage has been a place where those moments happen, and I am proud to welcome you to another exciting season.

This year's lineup offers an incredible mix of music, theatre, storytelling, and entertainment, showcasing both exceptional talent and the diverse experiences that make the arts so important to our community. Whether you are a longtime patron or joining us for the very first time, we are grateful you have chosen to spend your time with us.

The continued success of Horizon Stage is made possible by audiences like you. Your support helps ensure that arts and culture remain a vibrant part of life in Spruce Grove and continue to inspire, connect, and enrich our community.

Thank you for being part of the Horizon Stage story. We look forward to welcoming you this season.

6:30 PM

Join us for an evening of reflection and connection as we mark the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. This gathering creates space to journey through the truths of Canada's past, deepen our understanding of the present, and envision a future rooted in respect, justice, and shared responsibility.

Through stories, reflections, and open conversation, we will honour the lived experiences of Indigenous Peoples and confront the ongoing impacts of colonialism. This is a time to listen, learn, and explore how each of us can commit to the work of healing and reconciliation. Participants will have the opportunity to ask questions, either in real time or anonymously. All are welcome. To close the evening, tea, bannock, and light refreshments will be served. Emotional support will be available throughout the event.

Secondhand Dreamcar is an explosive soul, roots, and blues band from Edmonton made up of veteran Canadian musicians who have worked on some of Alberta's finest jazz, funk, folk, soul, and blues projects. Together, they craft a distinct, funky, and lyrically driven sound that journalist and programmer Peter North called "the most exciting thing to come out of the city since k.d. lang and the Reclines."

A favourite on CKUA Radio, the band's debut album Answer The Call was the station's sixth most-played album of 2024. In 2025, they became instant Alberta festival favourites, performing at the Edmonton and Calgary International Blues Festivals and the Edmonton Folk Festival. In 2026, the band received three Canadian Blues Music Award nominations and a Juno nomination for Blues Album of the Year, with a second album set for release this fall.

I Have No Idea is a play with original music that explores adult ADHD through a story of neurodiversity, friendship, the power of music, and how coffee makes everything better.

Two actors portray four characters: Robin, a musician; Brian, a psychologist who doesn't believe in ADHD; Taylor, a barista and Robin's best friend; and Susan, the psychologist everyone needs in their corner.

The play follows Robin and Taylor as they support each other through their ADHD journeys. Drawing on the lived experiences of the playwright and creative team, it uses humour, empathy, and music to explore the barriers neurodivergent people face, amplify ADHD voices, and offer insight into the lives of ADHDers.
